

American University of Armenia

Հայաստանի
Ամերիկյան
Համալսարան

Quick look at AUA Students

New Faculty Orientation
January 15, 2018

AUA Students *

Undergraduate	1446
Graduate	469
Certificate, Non Degree, Study Abroad	28

 Fall 2017 enrollment*

Enrollees*

Undergraduate enrollees	1446
Female	838 (58%)
Male	608 (42%)
 Graduate enrollees	 469
Female	299 (64%)
Male	170 (36%)

* As of Fall 2017

Enrollees*

Undergraduate enrollees	1446
RoA Citizens *	1348 (93%)
Non RoA Citizens	98 (7%)
Graduate enrollees	469
RoA Citizens *	424 (90%)
Non RoA Citizens	45 (10%)

* As of Fall2018

 Does not include 70 undergraduate enrollees who are dual citizens who also hold dual citizenship with RoA and 13 graduate enrollees who are dual citizens who also hold dual citizenship with RoA.

The average year of birth for undergraduate admits is 2001 ...

For entering freshman students:

(The) Amazon has never been just a river in South America.

The Communist Party has never been the official political party in Russia.

Music has always been available via (free) downloads.

Hybrid automobiles have always been mass produced

If you say “around the turn of the century,” they may well ask you, “which one?”

The average year of birth for undergraduate admits is 2001 ...

Almost all undergraduate admits were born after the 1988 Armenian earthquake and never lived in the Armenian Soviet Socialist Republic.

Almost all undergraduate admits have never lived in a world without Wikis (started in 2001)

Most undergraduate admits never lived in a world without the Internet (some debate but 1993-1994)

Still referred to as Millennials

- Also known as Generation Y, Digital Natives, Generation Me, Generation Rent and Echo Boomers
- The first generation to grow up totally immersed digital technology
- This generation can access content anywhere, anytime and on any device.
- This generation is skeptical, about everything. This makes them active learners.

Compiled from Fortune and Forbes.