Introduction to eTextbooks

February 15, 2013
Room # 308 E, Paramaz Avedisian Building
Presenters: Bella Avakian and Hasmik Galstyan

An Introduction to eTextbooks: What they are? How to identify eTexts to fit faculty and student needs. This presentation will focus on existing resources, open access eTexts, and eTexts for purchase. Information will be provided to assist faculty in identifying appropriate eTextbooks.

Agenda:

- Welcome and Introduction
  - Today's objectives
  - Upcoming presentations and workshops

- (Re-)Introduction to Library website

- ETextbooks and use of them
  - Why eTextbooks?
  - Copyright considerations

- ETextbooks available
  - Via Subscription
  - Open access eTextbooks
  - Books on AUA Server
  - For Purchase

- How to identify resources

- How to get help
  - Set up a library session for individual, group faculty, or student needs
  - Ask-a-Librarian service

- Upcoming Library workshops and presentations

- Feedback form

Handouts will be provided