The average year of birth for undergraduate admits is 2002 ...

For entering freshman students:

(The) Amazon has never been just a river in South America.

The Communist Party has never been the official political party in Russia – or the official political party in Armenia

Music has always been available via (free) downloads.

Hybrid automobiles have always been mass produced

If you say “around the turn of the century,” they may well ask you, “which one?”

The average year of birth for undergraduate admits is 2002 ...

Almost all undergraduate admits were born after the 1988 Armenian earthquake and never lived in the Armenian Soviet Socialist Republic.

Almost all undergraduate admits have never lived in a world without Wikis (started in 2001)

Most undergraduate admits never lived in a world without the Internet (some debate but 1993-1994)
